

The 4th Japanese Language Composition Speech Contest in the Republic of Lithuania

On November 13, the 4th Japanese Language Composition Speech Contest was held at the head office of Fukuyama Transporting Co., Ltd. in cooperation with the Hiroshima University Lithuania Center and Vytautas Magnus University. This year's contest was held remotely to prevent the spread of COVID-19 connecting Japan and Lithuania in the same manner as the previous year.

At the contest, 8 participants delivered their speeches under the theme of "transportation." The grand prize was given to Ms. Monika Moiseyev from Vilnius University, who gave a speech stating "The need to follow traffic rules to prevent traffic accidents has not changed over time."

Mr. Tetsu Ozaki, Ambassador of the Embassy of Japan in Lithuania as a guest of honor, and Mr. Toshiyuki Sato, Executive Vice President of Hiroshima University and Dr. Linas Didvalis, Center Director of Vytautas Magnus University as co-organizers attended the contest.
